The Diary of Anne Frank

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

VICKI FRANK (ANNE FRANK): A well-traveled daughter and wife of Air Force personnel, she has appeared elsewhere as Joan of Arc and Maggie in Cat On A Hot Tin Roof.

JOSEPH ANTHONY (MR. FRANK): Announcer and salesman for Sumter's WSSC, Mr. Anthony has appeared locally in the Rainmaker, Happy Hunting, and a host of others.

KAY HIGGINS (MRS. FRANK): From Wales, she has appeared as Ophelia, Lady Macbeth, Ariel, Emily in Our Town, among others. She is married (her husband is at Shaw) and has two children.

CLARK HOSMER (PETER): Presently at Shaw, his varied theatrical experience belies his youth. From Schenectady, this is his first appearance in Sumter.

GERRY COLBURN (MR. VAN DAAN): This popular young man from Shaw has either appeared in or worked with virtually every production here for three years.

BELLE BLAKESLEE (MRS. VAN DAAN): This well-known and charming Sumterite teaches at Alice Drive. She was Ann Putnam in last season's The Crucible. She has three children.

BOB JONES (MR. DUSSEL): Teacher, artist, and last season's Grandpa in You Can't Take It With You, Bob resides with his wife, Virginia, in Sumter. Their first child is expected very, very soon.

JUDITH CALLAHAN (MARGOT): From Montana, former model and auto racer and actress in a multitude of roles, she has two children, lives at Shaw where her husband is presently stationed.

VIVIAN BRITT (MIEP): A "veteran" with the Sumter Little Theatre—backstage—she is making her debut as an actress.

DUKE EBERT (MR. KRAHLER): A professional set designer, temporarily with the Air Force at Shaw, he is from Portland, Ore. Locally, his work with the Charlotte Music Theatre has won many plaudits.
